

From: Larry Weldon
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/7/01 7:33am
Subject: Microsoft

I think it is a shame that you settled with Microsoft. We have an ordinance in the village which prohibits owners from allowing their dogs to bark habitually. But definitive penalties were not included in the law so it is tough when an habitually barking dog crops up to persuade the owner to stop.

Microsoft will not stop its' monopolistic practices until you, the guardians of American justice, get off your blessed assurance, and enforce the law.

Please start now.

Larry Weldon
www.weldoncomputers.com